The Foundations of Politics Among Nations

What Is Politics Among Nations?

At its core, politics among nations refers to the interactions, strategies, and relationships between sovereign states and other international actors. It encompasses diplomacy, conflict, cooperation, treaties, economic exchanges, and the pursuit of national interests. Unlike domestic politics, which deals with governance within a country, international politics operates on a broader, more complex scale where multiple sovereign entities with diverse goals and values negotiate and compete.

Key Actors in International Politics

While states are the primary actors, other entities also influence the global political landscape:

1. States (Sovereign Nations): The main actors with defined territories, governments, and populations.
2. International Organizations: Bodies like the United Nations, World Trade Organization, and regional entities such as the European Union facilitate cooperation.
3. Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs): Groups that influence policy, advocate for issues like human rights, and aid in humanitarian efforts.
4. Multinational Corporations (MNCs): Large corporations that operate across borders, impacting economies and international relations.
5. Insurgent and Non-State Actors: Rebel groups, terrorist organizations, and other non-state entities that can challenge state authority.

Theories Explaining Politics Among Nations

Understanding international politics requires exploring various theoretical frameworks that interpret how and why states behave as they do.

Realism

Realism emphasizes the anarchic nature of the international system—meaning there is no overarching authority above states. It asserts that:

1. States are rational actors seeking to maximize their power and security.
2. The primary goal is survival in a competitive environment.
3. Power balance is crucial; maintaining or shifting the balance can prevent conflicts or trigger wars.
4. Alliances are formed based on strategic interests rather than ideology.

Key thinkers: Hans Morgenthau, Kenneth Waltz.

Liberalism

Liberalism focuses on the potential for cooperation among states through institutions and shared interests. It suggests that:

1. International organizations and norms can promote peace.
2. Democracy and economic interdependence reduce the likelihood of conflict.
3. International law and treaties are vital tools for managing relations.

Key thinkers: Immanuel Kant, John Locke, Woodrow Wilson.

Constructivism
