Origins and Evolution of Bobbi Brown Makeup

The Founder's Journey

Bobbi Brown's journey into the beauty industry was unconventional. Originally trained as a professional makeup artist, Brown observed a gap in the market for makeup products that complemented women's natural skin tones instead of covering them up. Her frustration with the prevailing heavy, overly glamorous makeup styles of the late 1980s prompted her to create a line that prioritized simplicity and authenticity. In 1991, Brown launched her eponymous line with just a handful of products: five neutral shades of lipstick, a clear lip gloss, and a few essential face products. The initial focus was on creating a palette that empowered women to look like themselves—only better.

Milestones and Growth

Over the subsequent decades, Bobbi Brown makeup experienced significant growth, driven by a unique brand philosophy and strategic expansion. In 1995, the brand was acquired by Estée Lauder Companies, which provided the resources to expand globally while maintaining its core identity.
